

Bio

Angela Huntley is a Customer Service Agent who works for American Airlines, assisting the flight crew and support personnel to ensure on-time flights—Master Sabre Scheduling software through two upgrades over 18 years. I have assisted in training my co-workers on the new system and jetways. I served on the leadership board with Black Professional Network as Community Chairperson at American Airlines.

My accomplishments are receiving my Bachelor's degree in business administration, Master's degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix, Certified Notary CPCC, Volunteered for City Council At Large Tiawana Brown, Volunteered for City Council At Large David Howard Campaign, Volunteered for President Obama Campaign, Skilled in the Non-Profits Organizations, Volunteered for City Council At Large James Mitchell Campaign, Volunteered Monologue March Video For Black Lives Matters. Throughout my career, my ability to maintain organized Operations, work in team environments, and prioritize responsibilities to meet goals and deadlines resulted in a consistent record of exemplary job performance. Keeping God first is essential, and remembering that "The Sky is the limit." Creating new ideas and pursuing my dreams for my future is very important, as well as spending quality time with my family. I am learning to master fishing despite having dropped plenty in the pond. But I will always continue learning and pursuing some of the simple things that are most important to me.